Risk Assessments

The Director/s will ensure that all potential hazards present in the environments in which the operations take place and any potential hazards associated with delivering the defined scoped of operations are assessed in line with the current relevant legislation.

Risk Assessments will consider:

1. The nature of the hazard

2. Identify who might be harmed if exposed to the hazard and how they might be harmed (employees, contractors volunteers and/or clients)
3. The likelihood of harm and how significant that harm will be to specific individuals and others generally
4. What suitable and sufficient controls are needed to prevent exposure to the hazard or mitigate the risk of harm to a reasonable and acceptable level in line with any legislation or regulations.

Assessments will be reviewed when there is:

- A change in legislation
- A change of premises or change to the environment in which the operations take place
- A significant change in the scope of operations and associated task are carried out
- The introduction of new equipment or any other reason which makes original assessment not valid.

Training

To comply with legislation and to promote the health, safety and welfare of staff and volunteers, health and safety training will be provided as follows:

1. At induction.
2. On transfer or promotion to new duties.
3. On the introduction of new equipment.
4. When changes are made to systems of work.
5. When training needs are identified during risk assessments.

Resolving Health & Safety Issues

1. Any employee, contractor, service user or volunteer with a health and safety concern must first raise it with their manager or the Director/s of Kandu Arts for Sustainable Development Ltd and Kandu Arts Community Projects CIC.
2. If, after investigation, the issue is not corrected in a reasonable time, or the manager decides that no action is required but the employee, contractor or volunteer is not satisfied with this, the employee, contractor or volunteer may then refer the matter to the Council and/or the Health and Safety Executive.

Monitoring and Evaluation

This policy will be monitored and reviewed annually by the Director/s of Kandu Arts for Sustainable Development Ltd and Kandu Arts Community Projects CIC to ensure that that risks to employees, contractors volunteers, service users and visitors are minimised at all times.
